Professional Profile

Manmeet Singh Nagpal is a legal professional with experience in litigation, arbitration, and regulatory advisory. He commenced his legal practice in 2017 after completing his B.A. LL.B. from Bundelkhand University, Jhansi, Uttar Pradesh, and has since been actively involved in handling high-stakes legal matters across multiple jurisdictions.

With over eight years of professional experience, Manmeet has advised and represented a diverse clientele, including leading real estate developers, multinational corporations, high-net-worth individuals, and financial institutions in complex disputes. His client base spans reputed builders, automobile conglomerates, corporate groups, and international parties engaged in arbitration, regulatory litigation, and criminal cases.

He has an active litigation and dispute resolution practice, regularly appearing before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, various High Courts, the National Company Law Tribunal, Consumer Commissions, and a range of quasi-judicial and regulatory forums. Manmeet also frequently represents clients before enforcement agencies in cases involving financial fraud, cybercrime, and white-collar offences.

Manmeet regularly advises clients on RERA compliance, construction-related disputes, and resolution of disputes through arbitration. He has considerable experience in handling high-value commercial litigation, shareholder conflicts, insolvency proceedings, and claims arising from contractual breaches.

In addition to his litigation and arbitration practice, Manmeet has considerable experience in regulatory advisory, particularly in the area of legal metrology compliance and audits.

Member of the Bar Council of Delhi, Supreme Court Bar Association, Delhi High Court Bar Association, and the NCLT & NCLAT Bar Association. He continues to play an active role in advising clients and contributing to evolving legal jurisprudence in his key practice areas.

Key Experience

- Successfully secured the interests of an Interim Resolution Professional through a Civil Appeal before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, wherein it was held that an IRP cannot be held personally liable for the company's defaults or be directed to jointly and severally refund monies to allottees/homebuyers.
- Represented an Interim Resolution Professional before the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, which held that since the IRP represents the Corporate Debtor, they qualify as a "Promoter" under the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 ("RERA Act") and are required to comply with the provisions of the RERA Act, including the mandatory pre-deposit under Section 43(5).
- Acted for several reputed Real Estate Developers, Automobile companies, and International clients in civil disputes, high-stakes commercial litigation, and criminal matters including bail proceedings.
- Represented a renowned Cyprus-based Public Ltd. company in the enforcement of a foreign court order ("Mareva injunction") against one of the largest state-owned banks of the Russian Federation, before Indian court of law.
