Professional Profile

Lalan Sinha, Partner at KNM & Partners, is a seasoned litigation and arbitration specialist with over 24 years of experience in handling complex and high-stakes disputes across Indian and international forums. An alumnus of Campus Law Centre, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi (Batch 1998–2001), Lalan has built a robust pan-India practice encompassing commercial litigation, arbitration, white-collar crime, and regulatory matters.

He regularly appears before the Supreme Court of India, various High Courts, the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT), the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT), and the Competition Commission of India (CCI). His practice extends to representing multinational corporations, Indian conglomerates, and high-net-worth individuals on a diverse range of matters including infrastructure disputes, construction arbitration, toll plaza and MRTS projects, labour disputes, and personal laws.

Lalan has developed a particular niche in managing pan-India litigation portfolios for leading MNCs and Indian corporates. He advises on litigation strategy, risk mitigation, and dispute resolution while working closely with in-house legal teams and international law firms. His focus on client-centric litigation management has earned him a reputation for providing pragmatic and result-oriented legal solutions.

His practice also includes advising on insolvency and bankruptcy matters, including strategic representation of corporate clients and creditors before NCLT and NCLAT. Lalan is also a trusted counsel in sensitive criminal law matters, regularly handling white-collar crime litigation, criminal quashing petitions, and criminal trial strategy across India.
