STARTUP ADVISORY

Startups operate in a high-growth, innovation-driven environment that demands sharp legal foresight to manage regulatory, financial, and operational risks. As India strengthens its position as a global startup hub, KNM & Partners offers strategic, lifecycle-based legal advisory tailored to early- and growth-stage ventures. The Firm supports startups through incorporation, fundraising, scaling, and exits, providing sector-aware, commercially sound, and compliance-driven solutions that build investor confidence and enable responsible growth.

KNM & Partners' Startup Advisory Practice combines expertise in corporate advisory, dispute resolution, taxation, and regulatory compliance to offer end-to-end legal support. From structuring entities and negotiating investments to managing shareholder rights, employment matters, and co-founder disputes, the Firm ensures startups remain scalable, investor-ready, and aligned with India's dynamic legal landscape. With experience across fintech, SaaS, edtech, healthtech, logistics, and consumer brands, the Firm blends legal precision with sectoral insight to help founders build resilient, well-governed enterprises.

TAXATION (DIRECT)

India's direct tax regime is shaped by evolving laws and heightened regulatory scrutiny, making strategic legal planning and risk management critical. KNM & Partners delivers comprehensive tax advisory, compliance, dispute resolution, and restructuring support to corporates, promoter families, and insolvency professionals. The Firm's cross-sector expertise enables efficient structuring and resolution of complex tax matters with both legal and commercial precision.

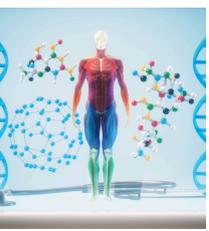

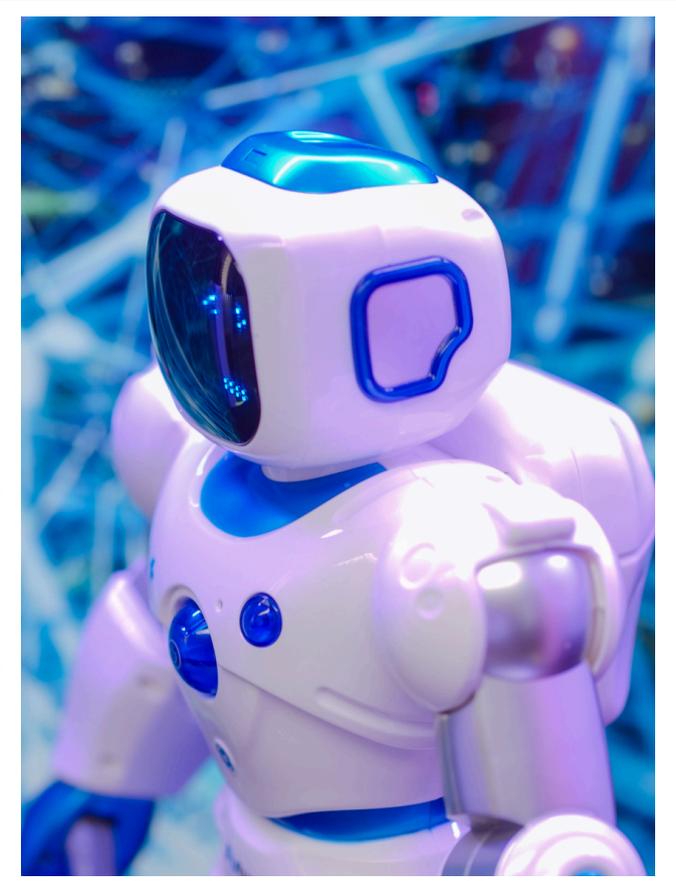

The Firm regularly handles assessments, transfer pricing, and high-stakes tax disputes, including search and seizure proceedings and penalty actions. It advises on distressed asset acquisitions, CIRP-linked tax liabilities, and cross-border tax planning involving DTAA, capital gains, and PE risks. KNM also assists with regulatory notices, tax reporting obligations, and audit preparation, offering coordinated litigation strategy across forums including SEBI, ED, and IBC.

TAXATION (INDIRECT)

India's evolving GST regime has streamlined indirect taxation but presents ongoing challenges around classification, valuation, ITC claims, and cross-border compliance. KNM & Partners advises manufacturers, service providers, e-commerce platforms, and multinational businesses on GST, customs, and legacy tax laws. The Firm provides strategic advisory, compliance support, and representation before tax authorities to help clients navigate audits, disputes, and optimize their supply chains.

The Firm's Indirect Tax Practice spans tax dispute resolution, compliance audits, and transactional structuring. It handles representation before GST authorities, appellate forums, and courts in classification, ITC, and transitional credit matters. KNM advises on place and time of supply, sector-specific GST issues, reverse charge mechanisms, and pricing structures. The Firm also supports clients in supply chain structuring, legacy tax disputes, customs compliance, and coordination with parallel proceedings under IBC, SEBI, and ED for holistic risk management.

Sidhant Ajmera has over 10 years of focused experience in real estate, banking & finance, and general corporate advisory. He has built a distinguished practice assisting clients in complex, high-value transactions, regulatory compliance, dispute resolution, and strategic advisory across these core sectors.

In the real estate sector, he has advised leading developers, funds, and institutional investors on land acquisitions, joint development agreements, commercial leasing, residential and mixed-use projects, and RERA advisory. His work includes conducting title due diligence, structuring land and development deals, advising on land use and zoning regulations, and drafting transactional documentation.

Sidhant's banking & finance practice includes advising banks, NBFCs, debt funds, and corporate borrowers on a broad spectrum of lending transactions, project finance, acquisition finance, and debt restructuring. He has also represented clients in DRT and NCLT proceedings, advising on enforcement strategies and handling corporate insolvency resolution processes (CIRP) and distressed asset restructuring under the IBC.

In the corporate domain, he advises startups, mid-market companies, and multinational corporations on business structuring, shareholder agreements, joint ventures, private equity investments, and M&A transactions.

Known for his transactional precision, client-centric approach, and practical legal solutions, Sidhant has supported clients across sectors including real estate, infrastructure, hospitality, financial services, technology, e-commerce, and logistics.

Yash Varma brings with him over 10 years of focused experience in Dispute Resolution, with a specialized practice in white collar crimes and commercial disputes. Yash has represented multinational corporations, real estate developers, financial institutions, and high-net-worth individuals in complex litigation and criminal defense matters across India.

He is known for his sharp litigation strategy, courtroom advocacy, and tactical handling of sensitive criminal matters. His forte lies in navigating economic offences, enforcement actions by regulatory bodies like the ED, CBI, SFIO, and SEBI, and advising clients on matters involving allegations of corporate fraud, money laundering, FEMA violations, and regulatory overreach.

Yash was a key member of the defense team in the landmark 2G Spectrum Scam case, where all accused were acquitted by the Special Court (CBI & ED), one of India's most high-profile white collar crime trials.

He has consistently secured landmark judgments, including successfully representing clients against arrest and coercive actions by the ED, resulting in acquittals and relief in cases involving alleged commercial-criminal disputes, property attachments, and money laundering allegations.

His practice also covers commercial litigation, shareholder disputes, insolvency-linked litigation, and arbitration.

He is valued by clients for his ability to navigate overlapping regulatory and criminal frameworks, offering end-to-end dispute management from pre-investigation stages to trial, appellate advocacy, and strategic settlements.
