Professional Profile

Himanshi Madan is a Senior Associate with KNM & Partners, with over 7 years of experience. She is a litigation and dispute resolution lawyer with extensive experience in arbitration, insolvency, and commercial litigation. She has represented some of the largest financial institutions, real estate developers, and corporations across various legal forums, including the Supreme Court, High Court of Delhi, NCLT, NCLAT, and arbitral tribunals.

She possesses experience that covers the entire lifecycle of a dispute—from the invocation of arbitration under Section 21 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, to the execution of the award under Section 36. She successfully handled and assisted with arbitration matters exceeding ₹100 crores against government entities such as DMRC and DDA, securing favourable awards for clients across industries, including real estate, automobile manufacturing, and logistics.

Her experience also extends to insolvency litigation under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. She has been directly responsible for handling matters before the NCLT and NCLAT on behalf of a leading financial institution and has provided legal opinions on complex issues, including personal guarantors' liability under the Code.

She also has significant experience in representing Asset Reconstruction Companies before the Debt Recovery Tribunal, handling recovery and enforcement proceedings under the SARFAESI Act and allied laws and advising on resolution strategies for distressed assets.

She also brings extensive experience in drafting statements of claim, defences, and applications under various provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Her approach combines strategic legal analysis with practical business insights, ensuring that the clients receive comprehensive and result-oriented legal representation.

Key Experience
