Professional Profile

Manmeet Singh Nagpal is an Advocate with substantial experience in litigation, arbitration, and regulatory advisory. He commenced his legal practice in 2017 after completing his B.A. LL.B. from Bundelkhand University, Jhansi, Uttar Pradesh, and has since been actively engaged in handling complex and high-stakes disputes across multiple forums and jurisdictions.

With over eight years of professional experience, Manmeet has advised and represented a diverse range of clients, including leading real estate developers, high-net-worth individuals, financial institutions, and corporate entities in complex matters. His practice spans high-value commercial disputes, real estate and infrastructure matters, arbitration, regulatory proceedings, and select criminal litigation.

He has an active litigation and dispute resolution practice and regularly appears before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, various High Courts, the National Company Law Tribunal, Consumer Commissions, Arbitral Tribunals, and other Quasi-judicial and regulatory forums.

Manmeet's practice includes advising and representing clients in construction and infrastructure disputes, contractual claims, and proceedings before courts and arbitral tribunals. He has handled high-value commercial and construction disputes involving contractual breaches, project execution issues, regulatory challenges, technical disputes, and damages claims, including matters in the hydro sector. He has experience in drafting pleadings and has also been involved in proceedings against State authorities seeking compliance with the regulatory framework and discharge of their statutory duties.

In addition to his litigation and arbitration practice, Manmeet also has experience in regulatory advisory, particularly in the area of legal metrology compliance, audits, and related issues.

Key Experience

- Successfully represented the interests of an Interim Resolution Professional in a Civil Appeal before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, wherein it was held that an IRP cannot be held personally liable for the defaults of the company or be directed to jointly and severally refund amounts to allottees/homebuyers.
- Represented an Interim Resolution Professional before the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, wherein it was held that, since the IRP represents the Corporate Debtor, the IRP would fall within the ambit of a "Promoter" under the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 and would be required to comply with the provisions thereof, including the mandatory pre-deposit under Section 43(5).
- Advises and represents several reputed real estate developers, automobile companies, and international clients in civil disputes, high-stakes commercial litigation, and criminal matters, including bail proceedings.
- Advises and represents a leading hydroelectric company in India in an arbitration against a public sector undertaking.
- Represented a renowned Cyprus-based public limited company in proceedings relating to the enforcement of a foreign court order, including a Mareva injunction, against one of the largest state-owned banks of the Russian Federation before Indian court.
